Dear Senator Tower:

STAT

Since I wrote to you on 5 June 1963 regarding the application of Mr. [] for employment with our organization, the review of his file has been completed.

STAT

Based on our current and anticipated openings for the next several months, there appears to be no appropriate vacancy which would accommodate Mr. [] employment with us when he comes to Washington next fall. We have advised him of this result and suggested that he might want to explore other possibilities to assure himself of employment while he continues with his studies. We have also suggested that he get in touch with us again when he arrives in Washington if he would be interested in further consideration of his application based on our vacancy situation at that time. A copy of our letter to Mr. [] is enclosed for your information.

STAT

We appreciated your interest in writing to us on behalf of Mr. [] and you may be sure that he will receive every consideration if he should reapply in the future.

We have received your completed application papers from Mr. and want to thank you for your interest in our organization.

STAT

Your file has been reviewed by appropriate officials and we regret to advise you that there appears to be nothing which would be immediately available for you. We have no assurance that this situation will change by the time you arrive in Washington next fall to continue your studies. Consequently, you may want to look into possibilities with other organizations which might lead to something more definite.

Our requirements are subject to change and it is possible that an appropriate position might become available in a few months. If you wish, you might get in touch with us again after you arrive in Washington to see if developments in the meantime have created an opening for you.

Thank you again for your interest in our work and your cooperation in supplying all of the information required. Knowing that employment is important to your plans for continuing with your studies, we hope that your exploration of opportunities elsewhere is successful. However, we shall be glad to hear from you again when you get to Washington and shall give your application every consideration in light of our recruitment situation at that time.
